About Lamaari

At Lamaari, we believe that luxury lies in authenticity. Inspired by the rich cultural heritage of Assam and Northeast India, our journey began with a simple vision—bringing the soul of handmade craftsmanship to modern homes. With every weave, carve, and knot, we celebrate the skill of artisans who transform natural fibers into timeless treasures.

Welcome to a world where artistry meets purpose.

Where Art Meets Purpose

Luxury isn't just how something looks—it's how it's made, how it lasts, and how it makes you feel.

Stories Underfoot

From monsoon-inspired hues to recycled plastics—every rug carries a mission.

Artisan's Legacy

Born from Assam's cotton fields and recycled riverside plastics, our rugs are treaties between earth and empire. Each knot ties a weaver's dream to your floor, blending ancestral patterns with modern majesty.

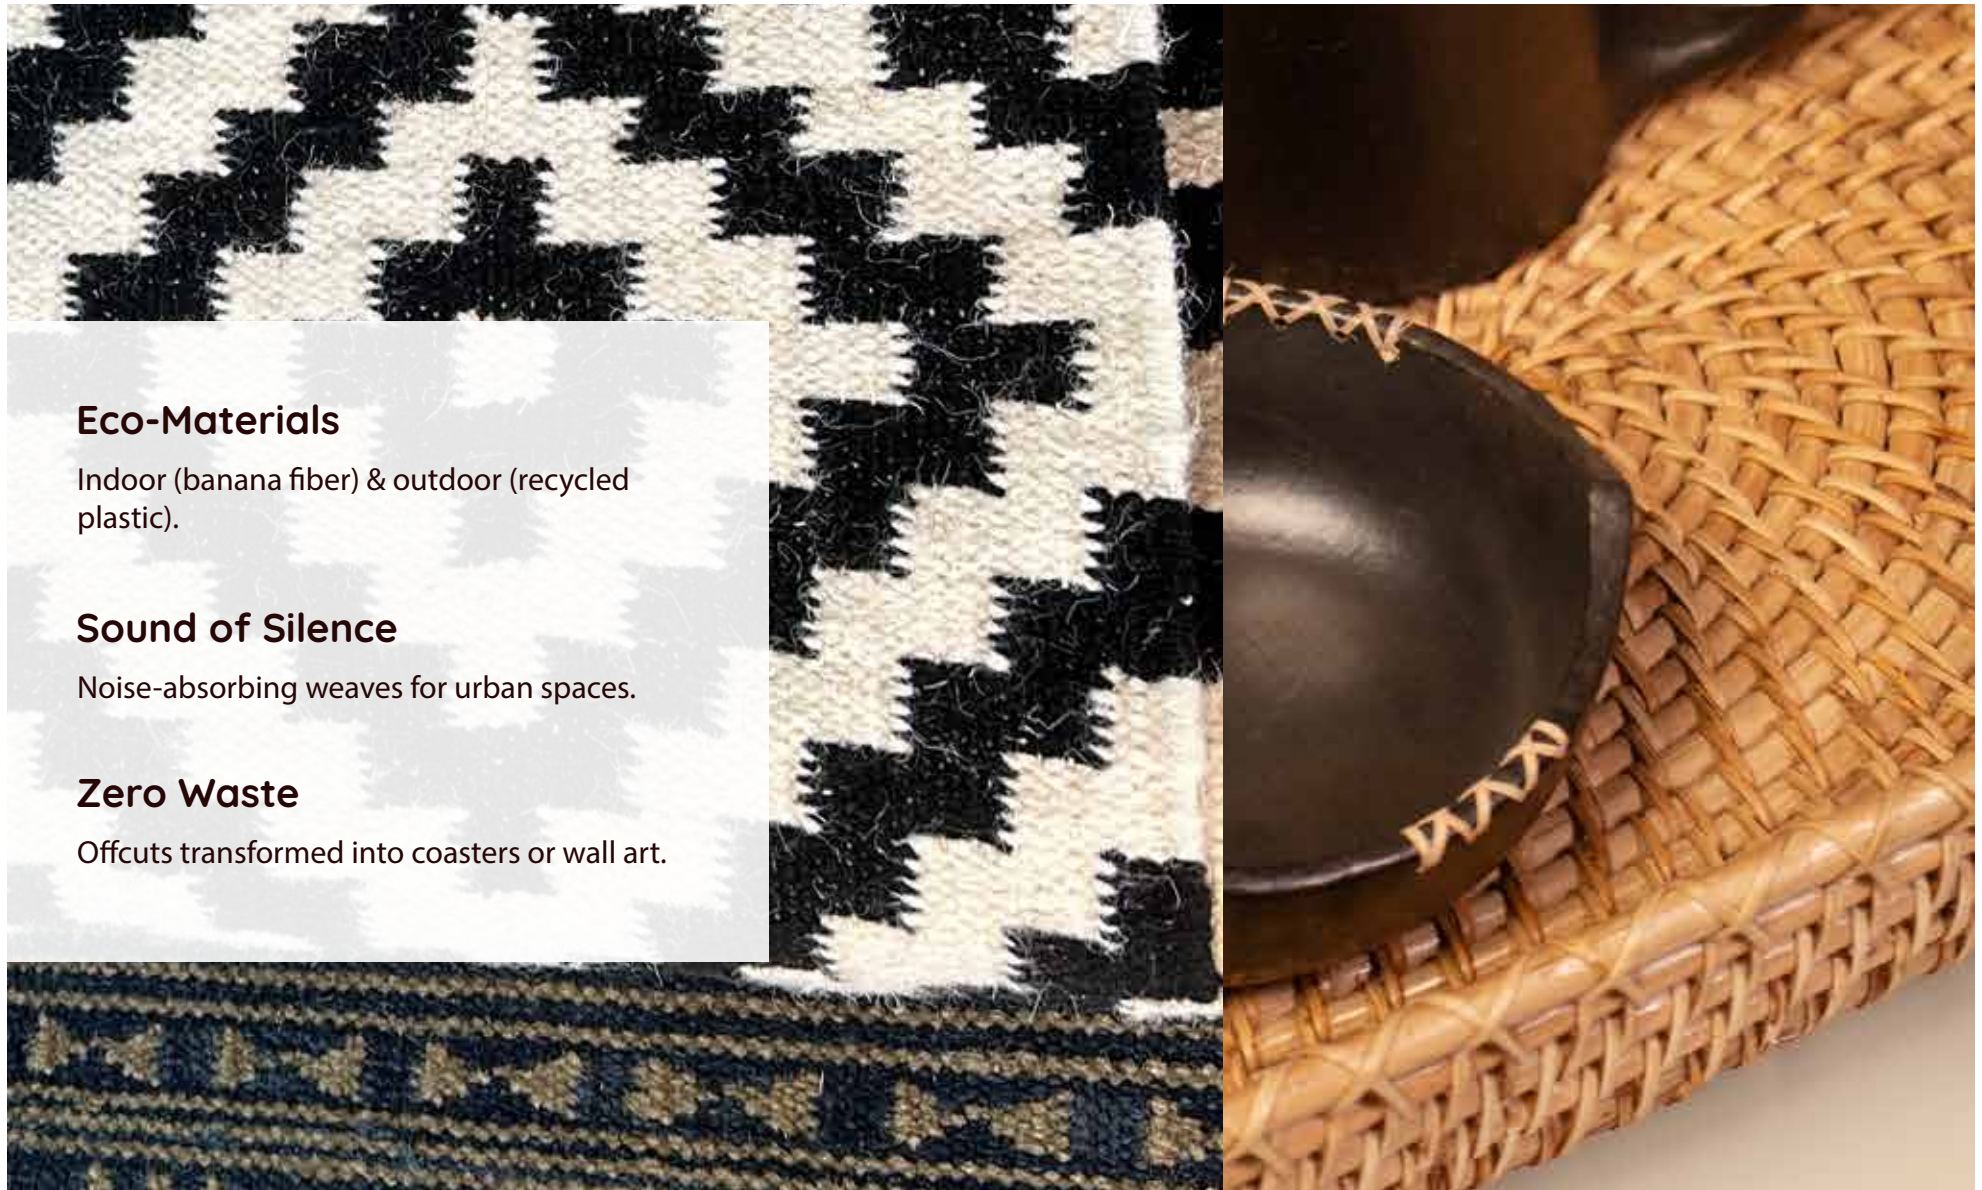

50+ Tribal Patterns

Eco-Materials

Indoor (banana fiber) & outdoor (recycled plastic).

Sound of Silence

Noise-absorbing weaves for urban spaces.

Zero Waste

Offcuts transformed into coasters or wall art.

Regal Applications

Living Narratives

Bold living room runners, serene bedroom mats.

Sustainable Offices

Toxin-free floor art for conscious workspaces.

Limitless Use

Garden pathways, yoga mats, pet beds—rewoven as you wish.
